Available in the CIA Library is a report on the results of recent elections held by Confindustria. The report also refers to the implications as the result of the succession of Dr. Alighiero De Micheli to Dr. Angelo Costa as President of Confindustria. It is generally believed that De Micheli will continue to follow the Costa policy. Milan banking circles are not too happy over past policies of the group, and they consider the group a self-perpetuating mutual assistance association for a closed circle of monopoly-minded big businessmen.
